TRAINING SPECIFICATION

BASIC AIRCRAFT PAINTING COURSE

Title: Basic Aircraft Painting Course.

Course Aim: The aim of this course is to enable course participants will be able to identify, define and demonstrate value by completing the theory and practical task given.

Course Description: The course has been designed and formulated to covers the competencies required and obtain a foundational understandingof how to use and carry out the proper way of an aircraft painting in their workplace. No licensing requirements apply to this course at the time of publication, but compliance with legislation and regulations governing handling and disposal of hazardous materials are included.

Duration: Three days.

What You Will Learn: Upon completion of this course, you will be able to:

- Understand the aircraft finishing fundamentals, identification, methods, equipment and tools;
- Identify the common paint defect, troubleshooting, trimming, marks identification, decals and compatibility;
- Review on safety precaution involved;
- Apply the basic skills and knowledge relating to paint finishes to aircraft and its components.

Number of Participants: Twenty (20).

Specialisations: Aviation proffesionals.

Learning Activities: Case Studies, Kahoot Quizzes

Language   English

Related Documents: Training Notes

What Is Covered
- Finishing materials
- Primers
- Paints Identification
- Methods of Applying Finish
- Finishing equipment-part and material preparation, spray gun operation,
- Common paint defect and troubleshoot
- Painting trim and identification of marks
- Decals
- Paint system compatibility
- Personal Protective Equipment and Safety in the paint shop.